

Once again the holidays arrived early for ACS. Below are the DVD's that were donated by our ACS member Daniel Briggs of Michigan.

#186: Ceramics Arts Daily 10 Great Tips & Techniques Volume III Some of the great stuff on this DVD. Homemade stencils, colored clay, glazing tips, mold making, wheel throwing, handbuilding, and more!

#187: Peters Lively Forms & Expressive Surfaces 2-Disc Set

In this installment of the Ceramic Arts Daily Presents video series, Mark Peters demonstrates his fresh approach to making functional pottery. With a combination of wheel throwing, altering, texturing, and assembling, Mark creates pots that are organic and loose in form, yet bold and defined in structure. Through a series of projects including a square lidded jar, a creamer and sugar set with a tray, an oval serving platter and more. Mark demonstrates how he thinks outside the box when forming to create his energetic body of work. Loaded with great tips and techniques, this DVD will fill you with ideas to apply to your own work in your own style.

#188: J Hughes Custom Clay Pottery Tools-Part 1 Making Pottery Tools from Clay Janis Wilson Hughes, presents this detailed instructional video on making and using custom pottery throwing tools and sculpting tools from clay. Janis developed this technique from scratch and shares it with you in a straight forward and thorough presentation. Both beginners and advanced potters will find great value in the concepts shared here. Your tool kits will be expanded with custom ribs and throwing sticks, and your approach to making new forms may be changed forever. As Janis says, "If you can make pottery tools out of clay itself, then why doesn't every potter make their own custom throwing and sculpting tools?". Now with this video workshop you can!

#189: Tom Turner Understanding Porcelain II In this second video of the two part series, Tom begins with a discussion of the raw materials used in glazes by explaining how he made glazes from rocks in his driveway. He then takes us through line blend analysis, mixing, applying and firing glazes...all with the goal of helping us find our own signature glaze.

Daniel, thank you so very much for these wonderful DVD's. They will be an asset to our extensive video library. I loved the pictures you sent viewing the pottery that was shown at the Ann Arbor Art Fair. Hopefully we will be able to scan some and share with our ACS members. Again, thank you kindly for your thoughtfulness. Warm regards.

JOB LISTING: Elementary School Ceramics Instructor (half-time)

Norma Coombs Elementary School, in the Pasadena Unified School District, is currently accepting applications from experienced Ceramic Teaching Artists for a half-time position teaching Ceramics to 22 classes of elementary school students (grades K-5). The ceramics program at Norma Coombs is a signature program which has been in place for many years. This position is fully funded by the school PTSA, with the expectation of hiring an appropriate candidate as soon as possible, for the current 2014-2015 school year.

Responsibilities:

- Develop a 6-month grade-appropriate ceramics curriculum.
- Teach a ~45 minute hands-on ceramics class to each of approximately 22 separate classes, once per week.
- Address the learning needs and varying interests of a diverse student population.
- Work with the classroom teachers to incorporate the ceramics program into the classroom curriculum, as appropriate for the various grades and classes.
- Engage with the PTSA (the funding organization for this program) to develop an end-of-year ceramics show and sale, to take place in early May.

Skills and qualifications:

- Minimum three years of teaching experience.
- Experience teaching art, during the school day, within a public school setting is preferred.

- Pre-school/Elementary-age child education experience is preferred.
  - Demonstrable in-depth knowledge and expertise in the ceramics field.
  - Ability to work collaboratively in a school environment with various school and community members, including school staff, teachers, and parent volunteers.
- To apply, please e-mail a resume and cover letter to Patrick Shopbell, Norma Coombs PTSA President, at ncasptsapresident@normacoombs.com. Inquiries can be directed to the same contact. Candidates will be expected to undergo a formal interview and to present a 45-minute demonstration class.
